Stephen Clackson's Letter from School Place

It has been a busy councillors' recess for me, doing all those jobs at home that are difficult to do when I am away from Sanday on council business in Kirkwall or on another of the North Isles. The changeable weather (predictable, given its state on St. Swithun's Day) has not helped me with the essential outdoor maintenance jobs, nor has it helped my bees with their pollen and nectar gathering activities. Nevertheless, I've still managed to make some time to get out into the ward.

Probably the worst day, weather-wise, was the 20th July, when I flew to North Ronaldsay for the (postponed) official opening, by Helen Swannay, of their new airfield building (Terminal 3). On our way back to Kirkwall afterwards, the pilot did an abrupt U-turn over Sanday to avoid an incoming storm, so we tried out the new NRL air passenger lounge while watching the lightning strikes hitting Sanday (and disabling my telephone line, destroying my router and damaging my computer!). The facilities at the new terminal are excellent, and, having worked at an airfield myself, I was particularly impressed by the comfort afforded the ground crew (without whom, we must remember, we could have no air service). Thanks to everybody who organised the fine buffet.

The weather was better for the Westray Regatta, with a stiff breeze blowing the boats around the course at Pierowall, although we did have to run for shelter from the occasional rain showers. No showers at the Sanday Show, though, where one of our geese was awarded "Reserve Poultry Champion".

I enjoy attending such community functions, as it gives me the opportunity to meet and chat with ward constituents in an informal setting. I welcome invitations to island events and will always try to come along if I can.

Cllr Davidson sails his yole at the Westray Regatta

Best Goose (Gwenda) at the Sanday Show

Before the recess, I was at two very positive engagement events in Rousay and Sanday for the Inter-Island Air & Ferry Transport Study. When I was travelling with the consultants from Kirkwall to Sanday on the Varagen, Captain Siegel kindly invited us onto the bridge and explained the challenges of sailing a ferry in the various sea and weather conditions and the consequent limitations on the vessel's speed and carrying capacity. This gave the consultants an insight into some of the realities of our transport system they couldn't have got otherwise. I'm a great believer that if you want to understand a business properly, talk to the people who do the job. It's a shame this maxim is not universally accepted, particularly by those "in charge".

I also went down to Inverness for my first meeting as a member of the Highlands & Islands Science Skills Academy Leadership Board. In a conversation after the meeting I discussed the possibility of our three North Isles' junior high schools being enrolled as pilots for the project. Each school will be contacted at the start of the autumn term.

Soon I'll be back at School Place for the last session before the local authority elections in May 2017, engaged in the unending collective struggle to steer the OIC ship on a sensible course. Apart from the three members of the Orkney Manifesto Group, Orkney Islands Council is not a "political" council. Whereas a council mainly comprising independents (like myself) has its advantages, its greatest drawback is lack of a clear vision and policy direction. To compensate for this, early on in the current council we jointly agreed a council plan ("Wur Plan" — available from OIC or at http://www.orkney.gov.uk/Files/Council/Council-Plans/Our\_Plan\_2013-2018.pdf ). Our mission statement is "Working together for a better Orkney", and my mission is to ensure this includes a better North Isles. We have 6 "council values":

- Promoting Survival
- Promoting Sustainability
- Promoting Equality and Fairness
- Working Together
- Working with Communities
- Working to Provide Better Services

Since Government Scotland cut our funding, value 6 has definitely become more challenging. Values 1 & 2 are especially relevant to us here in the North Isles, and I am striving to hold the Council to them. The closure of island polling stations, reduction in island council workers' hours, ever more onerous airfield regulations — these may seem inconsequential in Kirkwall, but they represent "death by a thousand cuts" to the survival and sustainability of our island communities.

I shall be chairing a public meeting in Stronsay on the 7th September and attending meetings of Sanday Community Council on the 13th and North Ronaldsay Community Council on the 22nd.

West Manse, Sanday

BEAUTY IN THE BEAST

By Ellie from Newfield

In the beholder's eye
that's where beauty is,
or so the saying goes.
But I can tell you this
for she bordered on the edge,
missing beauty by a whisper.
Perfect in every way
but lacking in charisma.
She never seemed to change,
didn't "put on any show"
but yet I felt convinced her development was slow.
So many times I've wavered,
been about to change my mind.
Underneath that prickly look was there beauty of some kind?
She didn't encourage favour,
never seemed to soften at all.
Sharp she was in her nature
like a hedgehog in a ball.
So on the Friday morning
when I barely gave her a glance
I held my breath in awe
while she held me entranced.
She wore a crimson posy
up on the side of her head
and her perfume, so beguiling,
it halted me in my tread.
My cactus was now in flower.
There's such beauty in the beast,
my patience is now rewarded
to say the very least!
