200 EDITIONS!

This is the 200th edition of the Stronsay Limpet, the island's monthly newsletter created by Yvonne & Heather back in 2005. They used a standard desk jet printer to print the first few editions and they delivered them by hand to every household on Stronsay. However, thanks to generous support from various folk including the late Dr George McKay they acquired two laser printers (one for colour and the other for black & white) which could print on both sides of the paper, and distribution was through the good offices of Olivebank, Ebenezer Stores and what was then the Post Office at Fagerheim.

The Limpet grew in size from 3 or 4 single-sided sheets to 10 or more double-sided sheets and its production began to take up more and more of the two ladies' spare time. I volunteered to take over the task because being retired I had spare time, I had a background in computing and I didn't want to see the end of such an excellent idea. Soon the two large laser printers were installed in a spare bedroom at Claremont, and I began to edit and print the monthly newsletter. The Stronsay Development Trust kindly provided funds for the purchase of paper, ink and postage stamps and within a few years more than 200 copies of the Limpet were being printed each month, 40 of which were for postal subscribers. These postal copies were handled by my late wife, Maureen, who placed each printed copy in an envelope together with a covering letter then affixed a postage stamp and a return address label; Maureen was mightily relieved to discover that the envelopes were self-sealing and that the stamps were self-sticking!

When the laser printers eventually failed the task of printing was passed to the Orcadian printshop with the SDT picking up the bill for that. All that I then had to do was to collate the information that was sent to me, squeeze it into an even number of pages and email it to the Orcadian printshop. Jim Holland delivered the printed copies to Claremont where I just counted them out and handed them over to the Olivebank & Ebenezer Stores together with a distribution list, plus one copy to the waiting room at Geramount surgery.

With effect from this January 2022 a very small number of printed copies of the Limpet will be produced by the SDT for distribution to those households that do not have a computer or access to the internet.

The Limpet has its own website through which anyone can access all back numbers of the Limpet and there is an email distribution list which is used to disseminate timely local information to folk who do not have access to the Stronsay page on Facebook.

My thanks to everyone who has contributed to the Limpet, my job now is to put the items into the Limpet's "house style" where possible, ensure that there are an even number of pages, and keep all the handy information on the back page up-to-date. I am always pleased to receive articles for publication in the Limpet, the format isn't all that important, they can even be hand-written. The only rule is that the article should have some relevance to Stronsay in particular or to Orkney in general. Maybe recent arrivals on the island could share their first impressions of island life, and those folk born & bred on Stronsay could write about life on Stronsay in the mid 20th century?

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY “LIMPET”

By Ellie

What does it mean to each of us?
Different things I'm sure.
But this I know without a doubt,
It would be sorely missed if it were no more.
The “Limpet” in its sincerity,
A man-made treasure
For purpose or pleasure,
Dates and information
Important to us all.
A family brought closer;
Stories short, long or tall;
Times and dates;
Long ago thoughts
Brought to mind for each of us
In memories of sorts.
The Limpet in its wisdom
Grounding us in care,
A paper and a comfort
For each of us to share.
Two hundred editions,
A legend I would say.
Long live our Limpet
Thanks to Bruce quietly working away.
A newspaper of such difference
For the Stronsay folk to peruse,
Or people who share our interests
Welcoming our news.
All that is needed to know
To keep you in the loop.
Happy anniversary—two hundred,
What a scoop!

LATEST NEWS

The doctors' morning surgery has returned to being by appointment, while the afternoon will still be open for 'on the day' calls for urgent needs. Both will initially be phone calls, with an invitation to attend the surgery if an examination is needed. In an emergency you will of course be fitted in straight away.

If you require an appointment please phone 616321 as usual or email ORK.stronsay@nhs.scot. When you book your appointment Katrina will give you a time for your initial call; the doctor will call as close to that time as possible, and hopefully within about 30 minutes. This will hopefully make your day easier to plan. Please help us by bringing just one problem, so that we can help you by sticking as close as possible to time.

If you are travelling abroad and need evidence of your vaccination status, you can now use the link below to obtain it. Please be patient as records are updated, and please don't request your record if you don't need it! Thank you <https://www.nhsinform.scot/covid19status>.

REQUESTING REPEAT PRESCRIPTIONS

- No more paper requests to be handed in.
- Please phone 616321 or email ORK.stronsay@nhs.scot to order.
- Check one week later to see if they have arrived.
- Time slots will be given for collection.

UP-TO-DATE CONTACT DETAILS

Please can we ask you to contact the surgery (phone 616321 or email ORK.stronsay@nhs.scot) if you have any changes to make to the information we hold. It really helps us if we have your up to date information should we need to contact you.

For example

- Mobile number
- Email address

Thank you, Dr Rosalind Fisher and Dr Alison Lievesley

COVID VACCINATIONS

We are nearing the end of vaccinating our over 18's population. If you have previously declined but would now like to have the vaccine, or have been giving the matter further consideration and decided you would now like to be vaccinated, can you please contact the surgery to let us know, so we can order vaccines in as appropriate. We are trying to achieve a high percentage of vaccinated residents so we can have a good level of immunity within our island community.

STROMSAY SURGERY—USE OF 616321

This is a reminder that the surgery telephone number is only manned Monday to Friday between the hours of 9-12 and 1.30-4.30pm. Between 12.00 and 1.30pm, when Katrina is at lunch, there is an answerphone service and calls won't be put through to Balfour so please avoid phoning at lunchtime. If it is an urgent matter, please dial 01856 888000 and ask them to page the Stromsay GP (or nurse if more appropriate). Outside these hours the calls are automatically transferred through to Balfour Hospital switchboard.

Could we kindly ask that if you need to speak with the Stromsay nurse, you call the surgery number on 01857 616321. Katrina will put you into the nurse telephone slot to be called when they are free. The nurse's new phone is such that we are unable to stop the message being left by the person from being overheard.

Thank you,

IMPORTANCE OF VITAMIN D

From Geramound Surgery

You may know that vitamin D is important in supporting bone and muscle health. A small amount can be absorbed from our diet, but most of it comes from sunlight. Not so much in Scotland though – although 15-20 minutes of sunlight daily (equivalent of both arms from a t-shirt sleeve down) is enough to top up your stores, we only get the right 'type' of sunlight from April to September, mostly from 11am-3pm.

The Chief Medical Officer in Scotland advises that we should all consider taking a daily 10 microgram (400 units) vitamin D supplement, especially during the winter months (beginning of October to end of March inclusive): these can be bought over the counter in the chemist or a supermarket, or online - some places have 3 for 2 offers. Please do use them! (and don't forget to use sunblock once you've had your 20 minutes - sadly we can still burn even this far north!)

Stephen Clackson's Letter from School Place (actually from West Manse)
Keeping the folk of the North Isles ward informed — with Orkney's only councillor newsletter

The Seven Principles of Public Life, otherwise known as the Nolan Principles (after Lord Nolan, the founding chairman of the Committee on Standards in Public Life) are: 1) Selflessness, 2) Integrity, 3) Objectivity, 4) Accountability, 5) Openness, 6) Honesty, 7) Leadership. They apply to anyone who works as a public office holder, including local authority councillors. At the beginning of this year, the Orkney & Shetland Valuation Joint Board (VJB) was presented with a second, even more damning audit from Deloitte, this time highlighting unlawful behaviour, and condemning the competence and effectiveness of its leadership and lack of scrutiny and challenge by the Board. For a 2nd time, the reasons I resigned from the VJB in August 2020 (Letter, issue 91) have been vindicated. As per the rubric of Principle 7, I was “willing to challenge poor behaviour”, but my challenge went unheeded by other members. To have remained on the VJB thereafter would have prejudiced my integrity (Principle 2). As I said to The Orcadian and The Shetland Times, lessons could have been learnt 2 years ago, had members respected my concerns and conducted themselves and the affairs of the VJB in accordance with the Nolan Principles.

I was delighted to be invited to deliver the Immortal Memory at Sanday Community Association's Burns' Supper. I made a reasonable case (I believe), on the grounds that Robert Burns' father often spelt his surname “Burness”, that he possibly had a distant family connexion with Sanday (although I conceded that there is also a Burness in Westray), noting also that his wife shared her maiden surname with that of Sanday's radical Free Kirk minister (and Orkney County Councillor), the Reverend Matthew Armour (1820-1903). One hundred and eighteen people attended the event, with great participation and a really good atmosphere. A much needed tonic for the island. I could not resist ending my talk with William McGonagall's tribute to the Bard, and in true McGonagallesque style I say: Robert Burns, poet sublime, may he be remember'd for a very long time.

According to folklore:

*If Candlemas Day be dry and fair, half the winter's to come and mair.
If Candlemas Day be wet and dull, half o' winter's gane at Yule.*

Well, Candlemas Day (2nd February) was rather mixed this year, being fairly dry and fair in the morning but turning wet and dull later on. So that has left us in a Schrödinger state as far as forecasting how much of this winter remains. We've been hit by a few storms, and there may be more to come. If anyone in Council property is experiencing water ingress or damp (or worse) which is not being attended to, do please let me know.

At a meeting of the Board of Orkney Ferries Ltd, we were informed that at the beginning of 2023 it will become a legal requirement for all passengers to be booked on the ferries. Therefore, it was agreed that, given the urgency, it would be wiser to devote time and resources to getting the necessary new booking system (with text messaging capability) up and running, rather than diverting effort into trying to implement a provisional text messaging service in the interim. Instructions on alternative notification services can be found on the Orkney Ferries website under the “Orkney Ferries News” tab.

Whereas I support Council Leader, James Stockan's "open letter" to the First Minister, it disappoints me that he did not distribute it more widely. I am not convinced that many people in influential positions are avid readers of The Orcadian ! The letter addresses 3 areas of unfairness in the way Orkney is treated in the Scottish Government's "Fairer Scotland":

- 1) Lower per-head funding for Orkney compared to other island authorities (referred to in my Letter last October, issue 105);
- 2) Ferries – need I say more?
- 3) Digital connectivity – despite R100 ("reaching 100%"), Orkney is being left with the lowest level of coverage in Scotland.

The full open letter can be found on the OIC website at: <https://www.orkney.gov.uk/News?postid=5083>

I can also report that the Highlands & Islands Leaders' Group is calling on the Secretary of State for Business, Energy, and Industrial Strategy to end the legacy electricity distribution charges that consumers in this region are saddled with. It is a supreme irony that, while we are net exporters of "green" energy to the rest of the UK, we pay the most per kWh for our power.

At a meeting of the Orkney College Management Council, we received an excellent College Housing Report by student reps Duncan Foxley & Francesca Meneghetti. Unlike many councillors, they fully appreciate the need for student accommodation if further and higher education are to thrive in Orkney. I've helped them understand the (often insurmountable) challenges Outer Isles students encounter when they want to attend courses at Orkney College and have nowhere to stay overnight in the town. If re-elected in May, I shall be working hard to overcome the stifling attitude towards Orkney College that is endemic at OIC.

Other meetings I have attended "virtually" this month include: a seminar on tourism infrastructure; Education, Leisure & Housing Committee; a budget seminar; and Monitoring & Audit Committee. The community council meetings I have "been at" are those of Sanday (in person), North Ronaldsay, Westray, Shapinsay (reported in The Orcadian), Papay, and Eday.

Many of you will have stayed at the Kirkwall Red Cross Hostel for medical-related reasons overnight or longer term. Currently, the Hostel is temporarily closed and is under review. Losing this facility would be a big blow for folk in the Isles, therefore, I urge everyone to leave messages of support at: <https://www.redcross.org.uk/about-us/contact-us/complaints-and-comments>

Although the pandemic restrictions have eased considerably, Covid-19 has not gone away. There have been recent spikes in infection rates in Orkney. So please take care everyone.

RECENT BIRD SIGHTINGS

‘Bird of the Month’ as February draws to an end was a ‘first winter’ Glaucous Gull at the Hill o’ Roo on the 7th, having just had a bath on the Blan Loch on the other side of the road. (See photo – broken feather protruding in the tail area). Large gulls often follow this procedure but never bathe on the loch in large numbers.

A female Chaffinch is still visiting the garden here at Castle and the over-wintering Robin gives a burst of song occasionally. The tame Blackbird reared at Greenfield is still thriving here and has – unlike a few House Sparrows – avoided the marauding Sparrowhawk which visits the area regularly. Several birds of prey have been seen on and off – 2 or 3 Merlins and at least 3 Hen Harriers, including at least one – black, white, and grey, adult male.

A few Fieldfares and Redwings (more of the former) were present until mid-month but most seem to have moved on. ‘Where to?’ is the question! Oystercatcher numbers have been building up in the last two weeks and Shelduck have arrived in good numbers – 21 on the Bu Loch earlier today (20th). Duck numbers have risen too, with 120 birds of mixed species (mainly Teal, Wigeon and Mallard) also on 20th. A few Pintail have also been recorded at Matpow where they bred in former years and a few Whooper swans have been seen at several sites, whilst at the other end of the spectrum Ravens have been recorded in larger than average numbers recently. Sad to say, Curlew and Golden Plover numbers have dropped since the New Year coinciding with a noticeable – and worrying – increase in the numbers of Greylag Geese which are beginning to ‘pair up’ throughout the island.

*The 1st winter Glaucous Gull ‘drying out’ on the Hill o’ Roo.
Note the white outer-wing feathers.*

*An adult Glaucous Gull about to ‘bathe’ at the Blan Loch several years ago.
Note the all white plumage.*

Records of a Bygone Age Souvenirs - The Pirate John Gow's boat tiller? Part 2

In last month's 'Limpet' we left John Gow and 9 of his shipmates languishing in a London jail awaiting their fate. The story goes on.....

On 11th June 1725, sentence was carried out at Execution Dock at Wapping where Gow and his shipmates were hung. In a bizarre twist to this tale, it appears that Gow was slow to die and, after four minutes, one of his executioners grabbed Gow's legs and pulled in an effort to hasten his end. At this point the rope broke and Gow fell to the ground, still alive and quite sensible, whereupon he had to again climb the ladder to the scaffold to be hung for a second time!

James Fea was, quite rightly, rewarded well for his efforts, receiving £1,000 from the Government for his capture of the pirates, an additional £300 for the salvage of the Revenge and her cargo and a further £400 from the grateful Merchants of London. With this fame and resulting windfall also came unpopularity, due in some part to jealousy but thought in the main to be due to his active support for the Jacobites and their cause. A number of court cases were brought against James Fea, all of which had to be defended at his own expense and which saw his fortune almost completely disappear. Some years later, due to his active support of the Jacobite Prince Charles Edward Stewart, Fea was forced into hiding and his house of Sound on Shapinsay burnt to the ground.

The title page of Defoe's 'Pirate Gow'

That could well have been the end of the story, with John Gow and his failed efforts as a pirate fading into obscurity, but this wasn't to be; Daniel Defoe came to hear of Gow's tale and took a great interest in it, publishing a book, 'The Pirate Gow', loosely based on Gow's exploits. This book was published in late 1725, the year of Gow's execution, and it was to help keep Gow's name and exploits alive.

Almost 100 years later, it was again Gow who inspired a book, this time the novel 'The Pirate' by Sir Walter Scott. This book was set in Orkney and Shetland and the main character in this book, Captain Cleveland, was loosely based on Gow and his activities. Published in 1822, 'The Pirate' was in its turn the inspiration for another book, again almost 100 years later!

In 1912 Allan Fea, a historian with Orkney connections, was to look at the fictional character of ‘Captain Cleveland’ and go on to tell the true story of Gow, along with some of the history of the Fea family, in his book ‘The Real Captain Cleveland’. Paying little attention to Defoe’s ‘The Pirate Gow’ and basing the title of his book on Sir Walter’s fictional and fanciful account of Captain Cleveland, Allan Fea relied on historical research and records of the time to put together the story of the real John Gow’s exploits, capture and death.

This at last moves me on to my own tentative connection to John Gow! When my parents bought the farm of Midgarth from the Tait family in 1948, one of the items left in the farmhouse was an intricately carved oak tiller just over a metre long (a tiller being the lever fitted to the top of the rudder on a small boat and used for steering) which, so local folklore maintained, was off the longboat belonging to John Gow the pirate’s sailing ship the Revenge and possibly brought to Stronsay as a souvenir by James Fea or one of his servants or relations. It has survived the years well, despite being involved in a dispute some years ago between a school friend and me which resulted in it being snapped in halves! Fortunately, it was easily repaired.

The oak tiller, reputedly from Pirate Gow’s longboat

Many years ago it was sent in to the Stromness Museum to be displayed as part of an exhibition about John Gow and, while there, generated some interest with Bryce Wilson, the curator at the time. Due to the carving of a dog’s head (possibly a greyhound’s) on the end of the tiller, he thought it may well have belonged to HMS Greyhound and been left behind by the ship’s crew or acquired by one of the islanders when the pirates were taken to London – probably a more likely but much less exciting story. We shall likely never know for sure!

WANTED

Hi there, I just wondered if rental property with land is available on the island at all? Looking for a place on the islands for myself my five year old daughter and our animals. We are looking at properties to buy too but should we be able to rent that would speed up our progress. I work from home so can live anywhere but a rural place with plenty of space and some land around it is what we are looking for. I am registered with agents but there seems very little available.

Many thanks.

BUILDING PLOTS FOR SALE

2 Building plots, Whitehall Village, Stronsay, Orkney

The plots are behind the village street making a secluded location but within easy walking distance of the shop, ferry, cafe and hotel.

The tried and tested practice on the Orkney isles for building is to buy a house kit and either have it erected by the supplier or our island contractor Castlehill Construction (who can also do the ground works)

LOCAL BUSINESSES

Hello Stronsay Business Owners,

I will be updating the business information (local services/arts and crafts) on the Visit Stronsay website next week, so if you could take a look at what is listed for your business on the website www.visitstronsay.com and send me any updates (new photo, different opening hours, etc.) by 28 February, that would be much appreciated.

Please use webmaster@visitstronsay.com to contact me.

If I don't hear from you by Monday, 28 February, I'll just assume that everything is fine and leave things as they are—so, no need to contact me if there are no changes.

If your business is not listed on the site and you would like for it to be, please send (via the email address above) one photo and basic information about how visitors can find and contact you.

Thank you all in advance!
Jennifer

DEVELOPMENT UPDATES

Stronsay Defib Appeal

The Appeal has been a fantastic opportunity for the community to raise funds to support three public accessible defibrillators (AED) on the Island. The response has been amazing, and the initial target has been surpassed, and we are happy to say that the defibrillators (AED) have now been ordered. Work is beginning on the refurbishment of the telephone kiosks and several AED training sessions for the community are being organized, we ask that anyone wanting to attend please register your interest now with the Trust, we hope to make training and awareness open to everyone but spaces on these initial sessions will be limited.

The equipment is very easy to use, and should you need to call 999 the ambulance service operator will normally stay on the telephone to assist you. The modern AED equipment is also designed to talk to you or show you and tell you what to do. You cannot make a mistake when using an AED – just follow the instructions being given. However, training is desirable, particularly to create confidence in the community, learn CPR, and to understand the processes. Training in correct CPR technique is also invaluable.

Fundraising remains open with the need for continued maintenance and replacement parts etc. in the future. Additionally, as the fundraising has been so successful, we are looking at a fourth location to fully support the whole island with equal access and will update you as that progresses.

Stronsay Hotel

After the successful funding award from the Scottish Land Fund the Trust are close to completing on the purchase of the Hotel and looking at then next phase of community ownership and management.

There are still temporary positions available that will bring potential long-term opportunities as we move into the new community management, these positions include kitchen, bar and cleaning, if you are interested or want to know more please get in touch with the Trust office.

We hope to be able to announce the completion of sale and next steps shortly and plan for a full community consultation at the upcoming Trust AGM.

Stronsay Health Matters

With the Successful funding award from the Healthy Islands Fund the Trust will be purchasing equipment to support sports, sea sports and fitness provision on the Island. This phase of the Project which supports our Islands wellbeing project will have a focus on accessibility.

Physical and financial challenges should not be a barrier to access the current or future provisions here in our community and we hope to look at ways of overcoming some of these challenges.

We will be establishing a sub committee to oversee the ongoing development of the Stronsay Health matters project and ask that anyone interested get in touch to discuss opportunities to be involved.

We have several sporting activities coming up including the North Isles sports as well as the Island Games coming to Orkney in 2025 and will look to these for inspiration to run activities including football, netball, hockey, archery, boules and more. We are also lucky to have a number of opportunities to access fitness classes and the Healthy Living center and we hope to work with individuals, local authority and businesses to expand the current provision and support the growing needs of our residents.

Community Greenhouse

A well-used and enjoyed community asset that has been supporting home grown produce for a number of years is hoping to expand and refurbish over the coming months and will provide a number of opportunities for new plot holders to grow and explore growing options as well as community composting. The recent weather along with the age, wear and tear has had an impact on the current greenhouse and we will be looking at repairing the main door and frame and at the same time making the site more physically accessible to all.

Plots will be available from April in the current greenhouse, and anyone interested in taking on a plot is asked to get in touch to register interest and find out more. We are also hoping to make additional outdoor allotments available and are looking for anyone that may be interested to get in touch to discuss.

Wellbeing Project

The Wellbeing project continues to support both individuals and groups across the Island and with the current funded period coming to an end in March 2022 we are optimistic that funding will again be granted and will update as soon as possible.

We hope to begin and continue a number of group activities and community clubs as part of the Stronsay Health Matters project including but not limited to football, cycling, running and walking, anyone interested in joining or finding out more are encouraged to contact the wellbeing coordinator through the Trust office.

KIRK CORNER

Hello again everyone.

Hope you have survived all the stormy weather? I suppose compared to some parts we have had it not too bad - ferries cancelled, groceries and work delayed, outings not achieved; but rarely life threatening? We feel for those who had it worse than us whether in Stronsay or elsewhere and help where we can. The storms of life come and are horrible when we are in them, and at times we have to hang in there but also seek to get and share help.

We were thinking in church today about how Moses was called by God to go and help free the enslaved people of Israel from their captivity in Egypt, and ultimately lead people through the Red Sea to freedom. the service began with Louis Armstrong singing and playing the old African American spiritual, “Go down Moses”, a song that inspired slaves of old in America. that God would help them

When Israel was in Egypt's land,..Let my people go, oppressed so hard they could not stand, Let my people go.

The Lord told Moses what to do, let my people go, to lead the Hebrew children through ..Let my people go.

Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt's land, tell old Pharaoh: Let my people go

The song encapsulates how God is a God who hears people's cries, cares and calls people to help set others free. It does not need amazing faith or ability to do something in the storms of life. Moses had some faith but lots of doubts and weakness just like us. Yet God encouraged, challenged and helped Moses to go, speak up and act to help others; as He can us today. The God of old still is the God of today who can challenge, encourage and help ordinary people with their own mixture of faith and doubts, move forward through troubles, and help others: especially when we work together and seek God's help.

I feel for the people of Ukraine and the storm they face from Russia and Mr Putin. It is scary what might happen for Ukraine and the repercussions for world peace. World War 2 reminds us there are times we must speak up and act for the sake of peace of others, but I pray that the time for war is not now. Moses reminds us that sometimes God helps people escape conflict, but it needs people to speak up : Let my people go. I will keep praying for the people of Ukraine and that common sense will prevail.

GROUPS, CLUBS & ORGANISATIONS

Ultimately God sent his son Jesus to be on the side of the oppressed and outcast, on the side of ordinary people with some faith and lots of uncertainties and doubts. Friends once brought a paralysed man to Jesus who healed him both spiritually and physically, and we saw how in Jesus, God wants to set people free of more than just physical chains. That help is still available : Jesus comes to help us set people free of all that drags us down. If you would like to explore your questions, doubts, uncertainties with others, a cross-Orkney online chat group is being established by Rev Julia Meason of Kirkwall East church, to read through the bible Gospel of Luke and chat with others about it weekly online by zoom. It will be on either a Monday or Thursday evenings at 8pm during the weeks of Lent before Easter, starting after 2nd March. If you are interested in joining with a few more from Stronsay in this group, please let me know. Its not meant to be for experts, just ordinary folk chatting in an online group, where you can be as silent as you want and ask any question you like.

May God's Peace be with you and others
